DryTown December Deal: Discounted 2015 Season Passes Plus One Free Admission

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale's DryTown Water Park is making holiday shopping easier and more affordable with a special discounted offer on all pre-season passes purchased online at www.cityofpalmdale.org/drytown from Dec. 1 through Dec. 31, 2014. In addition, DryTown is giving away a single-day admission ticket, valued up to $21, with each pass sold during the holiday online sale.

"DryTown's regular prices are already a good deal," said DryTown Manager Eric Dombrowski, "but with this discount of 20 percent off and a free day pass, a good deal has gotten even better. You can get an individual season pass for as low as $34 each."

With the discount, City of Palmdale residents pay a holiday pre-season price of just $43 for an individual pass and only $34 each for 4 or more passes. The discounted price for non-Palmdale residents is $53 for individual passes, $42 each for 4 or more passes.

"DryTown season passes make great stocking stuffers," said DryTown Recreation Coordinator Laura Rice. "Season pass holders enjoy unlimited use of the water park during its normal hours of operation and can also attend all Sundown at DryTown events. So make a splash this holiday season with the gift of summer fun!"

DryTown is the Antelope Valley's only water park. It is a six-acre Old West mining town-themed aquatic park featuring a 925-foot lazy river, a 35-foot waterslide tower with three waterslides and splashdown pool, a four-lane racer slide, and a 6,000 square foot children's water playground with spray features. It also features Dusty's Grill hosted by Subway; a General Store with souvenirs and sundries; covered picnic area; and a large grassy area for group outings. Parking is free.
