City of Palmdale's Children's Springfest Coming April 12

PALMDALE – The popular Children's Spring Fest & Egg Hunt will be held on Saturday, April 12 from 10 am to 2 pm at the Palmdale Amphitheater. It is free and open to kids ages 2 through 12.

A free egg hunt, crafts and activities will all be part of the fun. A Kids Fun Zone will also be available for $2. It will include pony rides, petting zoo, slide racer, castle obstacle course, jumbo maze, Euro bungee and bubble balls.

The Easter Bunny will also be on hand to greet the children. "Bunny and Me" photos will be available for $2.

Food vendors will be onsite.

The Children's Spring Fest and Egg Hunt is made possible through the generous sponsorship of the Warnack Foundation.

"Once again the generosity of the Warnack Foundation is making a positive impact in Palmdale," said Palmdale Mayor Jim Ledford. "The Foundation continues to identify areas where they can uplift the community and provide some resources to improve the quality of life for our residents.

About the Palmdale Amphitheater

The Palmdale Amphitheater, located at 2723 Rancho Vista Blvd., is the Antelope Valley's premier outdoor entertainment venue, providing audiences with a blend of high energy concert performances and community-based programming. Its convenient location, great sight lines and comfortable, grassy seating areas are complemented by

Saturday evening concerts and Friday evening Family Movie Nights presented during summer months. It has been the venue for Gracefest, GCom Wounded Warrior Concert, Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall for the AV, Easter services, high school graduations and reunions, and numerous other activities.
