Four Points Swap Meet to Host Winter Clothing Drive for SAVES Throughout December
Free Admission for a Donated New or Slightly Used Items

PALMDALE – The Antelope Valley Swap Meet, located at 5555 Pearblossom Highway in Palmdale, is offering free admission throughout December to anyone who brings a new or slightly used winter clothing item to donate to the South Antelope Valley Emergency Services (SAVES).

Winter clothing items include coats, sweaters, sweatshirts, hats and scarves. Collection bins will be located at all entrances throughout the Swap Meet.

“As the weather has gotten colder, we’re seeing an increase in the need for winter clothing by our clients,” said SAVES Coordinator Patricia Morales. “Your donations will help someone in need of winter clothing, plus you’ll get into the Swap Meet for free.”

The Antelope Valley Swap Meet is open Saturdays from 8 am to 4 pm and Sundays from 6 am to 4 pm.

For more information, please contact the Antelope Valley Swap Meet at 661/273-0456

About SAVES

SAVES provides a practical and caring approach to serving people in need. The SAVES program was started in 1983 to offer assistance to individuals and families who are experiencing a temporary emergency situation.

In 2014, SAVES provided 81,853 meals to families and 52,567 meals to seniors.

During holiday season, SAVES provided 300 Thanksgiving baskets, 350 holiday baskets and 160 toy baskets.
