Open Auditions for “Bridget’s Girl” at Palmdale Playhouse

PALMDALE – The Palmdale Playhouse will host open auditions for its upcoming production of “Bridget’s Girl,” scheduled to take the stage June 6 through 8 at the Playhouse.

Auditions for “Bridget’s Girl” will be held at the Palmdale Playhouse, 38334 10th Street East, on Friday, April 11 at 6 pm and Saturday, April 12 at 10 am.

“Bridget’s Girl” is a musical about a wife’s choice to recapture her artistic life after helping her husband attain his career and raising a teenage daughter, and who now questions the decisions she made in life that challenge who she really is to her family.

Ten cast members are needed including: five females ages 15-60 (soprano and alto needed), and 5 males ages 17-60 (tenor and baritone needed.) Auditioners should bring with them a current resumé and photo, as well as being prepared to sing a piece from the show. An accompanist will be provided.

“Bridget’s Girl” composer, James A. Goins will direct the production. He was selected by the Playhouse as part of the Guest Director Program to reach out and engage local theatrical talent. Goins has an extensive background in teaching, writing, directing and composing both for theatre and film and youth activism.

“James and the entire Playhouse staff are excited for the opportunity to produce a quality show to present to the public,” said Palmdale Recreation Supervisor Annie M. Pagliaro. “This unique partnership between the City provides aspiring or experienced directors a wonderful opportunity to showcase their talent while producing a City production in a community theatre

“Bridget’s Girl” is based on a book by Barbara Dixon with lyrics by Barbara Dixon and music by James A. Goins and presented by special arrangement with Laity Arts Foundation.

For more information please call Linda Willis at the Playhouse at 661/267-5584.
