

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CITY OF PALMDALE

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: John Mlynar

PHONE: 661/267-5115

DATE: September 26, 2016

Legacy Commons to Host Delfonics Revue Featuring Gary Stevens on October 1

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale’s Legacy Commons for Active Seniors, located at East Avenue Q-9, will host a concert performance by the Delfonics Revue featuring Gary Stevens on Saturday, Oct. 1 at 6 pm.

Originally hailing from Philadelphia, PA, the Delfonics are best known for R&B hits including “La La Means I Love You,” “Didn’t I Blow Your Mind This Time” and “Hey Love.” Opening the show will be guest emcee and comedian Melvin Jackson, Jr. DJ music and line dancing will also be part of the event.

Doors open at 5 pm. Tickets are $25, with VIP seating available for $35. Tickets are available by calling DeVal Robinson at 323/594-2806 or Marva Lynne Evans at 323/594-0443. Tickets must be purchased in advance as there will be no sales at the door.

For more information, please call 323/594-2806.

About Legacy Commons

Legacy Commons provides adults age 55+ the opportunity to remain young-at-heart with a wide range of drop-in activities in a modern, contemporary center. Experience camaraderie, enhance your overall health, continue learning and foster self-reliance through our fitness and exercise classes, visual and performing arts programs, informational seminars and special interest groups. Adjacent Legacy Park features walking paths and picnic tables, bocce ball courts, horseshoe pits and a croquet lawn.

Visitors are invited to pick up a detailed schedule of activities. No membership is required.

Legacy Commons is located at 930 East Avenue Q-9, and is open Monday through Thursday, from 8 am to 4:30 pm and Friday's from 8 am to 12 noon. For more information call Legacy Commons at 661/267-5904.

-30-

Communications Department • 38300 Sierra Highway • Palmdale, CA 93550
www.cityofpalmdale.org