See T. Rex and Friends: Bus Excursion to Dinosaur Hall Slated for March 1

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale will host a bus excursion to Dinosaur Hall at The Natural History Museum on Saturday, March 1 from 8:30 am to 5 pm.

“The Natural History Museum’s new Dinosaur Hall is one of the most extraordinary dinosaur exhibits in the world, and the premier dinosaur experience in the western United States,” said Recreation Supervisor Paula Leszkiewicz. “Inside are more than 300 real fossils and 20 complete dinosaurs. One of the centerpieces of the exhibit is the T. rex growth series — the only trio of different aged T. rex specimens in the world.”

The Natural History Museum also features exhibits that track and catalog the Earth’s biodiversity, and is an authority on the ‘big picture’ of the planet: the natural and the cultural world.

Tickets are $13 for Palmdale residents and $18 for non-residents. Participants may register in advance online at www.cityofpalmdale.org, in-person at Palmdale’s recreation and culture office located at 38260 10th St. East, Monday through Thursday from 7:30 am to 6 pm.

The bus will meet at Palmdale Transportation Center, 39000 Clock Tower Plaza, at 8:30 am and return by 5 pm. The name of each person attending, address, phone number, emergency contact, and each minor child’s birth date are required. An adult must accompany anyone under age 18. The City requires a minimum of 20 registrants for an excursion to take place. Individuals who wish to purchase more than eight tickets for any one trip must contact the excursion supervisor. Cancellations must be made two weeks in advance of excursion.

Other scheduled bus excursions include:

Diana: Legacy of a Princess at The Queen Mary, Sat. March 15. 8:30 am – 5 pm

Remembered for her charm, compassion, timeless beauty and classic style, Princess Diana continues to be an icon of inspiration to millions of people worldwide.
