Last Chance to Get Tickets for Free Screening of "Dive!" Documentary

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale is inviting residents to attend a special screening of the documentary "Dive!" this on Wednesday, March 16 at 2 pm at the Chimbole Cultural Center, located at 38250 Sierra Highway in Palmdale.

Inspired by a curiosity about our country's careless habit of sending food straight to landfills, the multi award-winning documentary DIVE! follows filmmaker Jeremy Seifert and friends as they dumpster dive in the back alleys and gated garbage receptacles of Los Angeles' supermarkets. In the process, they salvage thousands of dollars' worth of good, edible food---resulting in an inspiring documentary that is equal parts entertainment, guerilla journalism and call to action.

Tickets are free, but seating is limited. Seating is limited. Interested persons are encouraged to RSVP by calling 661/267-5300 or emailing foodwaste@cityofpalmdale.org.

Doors open at 2 pm. The movie will begin at 2:30. Following the movie will be a panel discussion on local solutions to the problem, and a short video featuring culinary students from the University of Antelope Valley who prepared delicious meals for South Antelope Valley Emergency Services (SAVES) families from donated food.
