DryTown December Deal: Discounted 2016 Season Passes Plus One Free Admission
PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale’s DryTown Water Park has the perfect stocking stuffer for the holidays---discounted season passes for 2016 plus a free day pass for each season pass purchased now through opening day.

“Our special offer makes holiday shopping easier and more affordable,” said DryTown Manager Eric Dombrowski. “Purchase your season passes online at www.cityofpalmdale.org/drytown to take advantage of this deal. What a great gift to open on Christmas morning---a DryTown season pass and a pass to take a friend for free!”

With the discount, City of Palmdale residents pay a holiday pre-season price of just $43 for an individual season pass and only $34 each for 4 or more passes. The discounted price for non-Palmdale residents is $54 for individual passes, $42 each for 4 or more passes. The discount ends December 31.

Season pass holders get to enjoy unlimited use of the water park during its normal hours of operation and may also attend all Sundown at DryTown events free of charge.

DryTown is the Antelope Valley’s only water park. It is a six-acre Old West mining town-themed aquatic park featuring a 925-foot lazy river, a 35-foot waterslide tower with three waterslides and splashdown pool, a four-lane racer slide, and a 6,000 square foot children's water playground with spray features. It also features Dusty's Grill hosted by Subway; a General Store with souvenirs and sundries; covered picnic area; and a large grassy area for group outings. Parking is free.
