Theatre Experience Students Present
“Fractured: A Fairy Tale Parody” This Weekend at the Palmdale Playhouse

PALMDALE – The Palmdale Playhouse Theatre Experience students will present “Fractured: A Fairy Tale Parody” this Friday, July 25 at 6 pm and Saturday, July 26 at 2 and 6 pm at the Playhouse, located at 38334 10th St. East.

Tickets are only $7 each and available online at www.cityofpalmdale.org/playhouse or at the door. Family Four-Packs are available for $20 and are only available at the door. Family Four-Pack tickets may be used for any combination of shows.

Produced by special arrangement with Eldridge Publishing Company, “Fractured” tells the tale of Princess Esmeralda who has fallen in love with Lance A. Lot, a mortal from the real world. When the King and Queen learn of their daughter’s affection for this human, they banish him and strip Esmeralda’s helpful fairy godmother of her powers. In the meantime, everyone in the kingdom is stuck in limbo because no one in the real world is reading fairy tales anymore. Cinderella can never have her glass slipper, Jack can never climb his beanstalk, Beauty’s beau will always be a beast, and so on, and so on goes the bleak picture.

Esmeralda must come up with a plan that will get everyone’s stories back on track so they all can reach their happily ever afters — and perform a magnificent curtain call. Throw in a wizard who loves stealing the spotlight and a line-up of dysfunctional

Prince Charmings, and you have the craziest culmination of fractured fairy tale characters in the history of the world.

During intermission at all the performances, the students will auction off chairs that they designed in painted in fairy tale themes. All proceeds raised will support arts programs for youth at the Palmdale Playhouse.”
