“Little Shop of Horrors” Coming to Palmdale Playhouse in October

PALMDALE – The Palmdale Playhouse will host the Palmdale Repertory Theatre’s production of “Little Shop of Horrors” coming to the Playhouse stage this October.

Tickets are $20 general admission; $15 students, seniors & military; and $12 for children 12 and under. Tickets are available at www.cityofpalmdale.org/playhouse.

“Little Shop of Horrors” is a comedy horror production that features several popular songs, including the title song, "Skid Row (Downtown)," "Somewhere That's Green," and "Suddenly, Seymour."

“Plant yourself in the theatre for this campy horticultural horror musical, just in time for Halloween!” said Palmdale Recreation Supervisor Annie Pagliaro. “Gawky Seymour Krelborn, looking for a way to save his job in a ramshackle, skid row flower shop, purchases a curious exotic plant hoping it will make business bloom, and it does. There’s just one problem: the little creeper possesses a rapacious appetite for fresh human plasma and it’s mushrooming out of control.”

Audience members are encouraged to wear Halloween costumes to the performances.
