

CITY OF PALMDALE

MEDIA ALERT

CONTACT: John Mlynar
PHONE: 661/267-5115
DATE: November 16, 2016

PHOTO/INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITY

WHAT: Unveiling of winning poem in the City's Walk on Words poetry contest.

WHEN: Saturday, November 19 at 10 am

WHERE: Marie Kerr Park, 39700 30th St. West, near the Community Building.

WHO: Palmdale City Councilmembers; Recreation and Culture staff; first place and honorable mention poetry contest winners.

WHY: To announce and unveil the winning poem in the Walk on Words Contest, which will be stamped in concrete at Marie Kerr Park. Honorable mention winners will also be announced.

BACKGROUND: Participants in the Walk on Words Poetry Contest were asked to craft a poem with the theme "Parks Make Life Better." The contest was free and open to all ages. Poems had to be original compositions, no more than 12 lines long, including title, with a maximum of 35 characters per line, including spaces.

INFORMATION: 661/267-5115

-30-

Communications Department • 38300 Sierra Highway • Palmdale, CA 93550
www.cityofpalmdale.org