Palmdale City Library to Host “Library Wars” on Saturday

PALMDALE – The Palmdale City Library’s “Manga Club” for teens will discuss “Library Wars” at its next meeting this Saturday, Dec. 20 from 3 to 5 pm at the Library, located at 700 E. Palmdale Blvd.

Teens ages 13 through 17 are welcome to join this free event.

“‘Library Wars’ is a great series about reading, camaraderie and freedom of information,” said Palmdale City Library Director Thomas Vose “For obvious reasons, this is one of our favorite titles. Come join us for some lively discussion and snacks.”

In the near future of the “Library Wars” universe, the federal government creates a committee to rid society of books it deems unsuitable. The libraries vow to protect their collections, and with the help of local governments, form a military group to defend themselves---the Library Forces! Iku Kasahara has dreamed of joining the Library Defense Force ever since one of its soldiers stepped in to protect her favorite book from being confiscated in a bookstore when she was younger. But now that she’s finally a recruit, she’s finding her dream job to be a bit of a nightmare. Especially since her hard-hearted drill instructor seems to have it out for her.

The Palmdale City Library is open seven days a week. Hours of operation are Monday through Thursday from 10 am to 8 pm; Friday and Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm; and Sunday from 1 to 5 pm.

For more information, please call the Palmdale City Library at 661/267-5600 or TDD 267-5167, or visit www.cityofpalmdale.org/library.
