Palmdale City Library's Manga Club to Discuss "Tsubasa"

PALMDALE – The Palmdale City Library's "Manga Club" for teens will discuss "Tsubasa," a beautifully drawn title by the renowned animation studio "Clamp," at its next meeting this Saturday, June 20 from 3 to 5 pm at the Library, located at 700 E. Palmdale Blvd.

Teens ages 13 through 17 are welcome to join this free event. Snacks, drinks and discussion will be available, as well as screenings of episodes.

"A true and noble heart holds much power, stronger than the hardest fist and mightier than the most potent magic," explains Palmdale Library Director Thomas Vose. "Four disparate travelers begin an epic journey... their goals different, their destiny the same. Along the way, the past will meet the future in the present. Of all the paths of every life, mingling in the dimension between dimensions where a foe has the face of an ally, and an ally the face of a monster. At the center of this heroic undertaking is Syaoran, a young man called upon to save his fated, the princess Sakura. Her memory has been shattered, the very essence of her soul sent adrift across the universe. Feathers float down on strange lands, torn asunder if only to prove the power of love. With fellow travelers Kurogane and Fai, a warrior and a wizard, an epic quest begins."

The Palmdale City Library is open seven days a week. Hours of operation are Monday through Thursday from 10 am to 8 pm; Friday and Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm; and Sunday from 1 to 5 pm.
