Palmdale City Library Announces Partnership with Local Literacy Group

PALMDALE – The Palmdale City Library has announced a new partnership with the Palmdale Antelope Valley Adult Literacy Program (PAVALP), a non-profit organization that helps English speaking adults improve their reading and writing skills

Under this new collaboration, the Library will assist with referrals to connect individuals with the tutoring they need to develop adult literacy.

“The Library exists to help support the development of literacy and foster a love of reading in the community,” said Library Director Thomas Vose. “We’re glad to be working with a group that shares our passion!”

“We’re also looking for people who would like to volunteer as tutors for this important program,” Vose said. “If you have some time and the passion to help better other people’s lives, give PAVALP a call at 661/202-7403.”

The Palmdale City Library is open seven days a week. Hours of operation are Monday through Thursday from 10 am to 8 pm; Friday and Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm; and Sunday from 1 to 5 pm.

For more information, please call the Palmdale City Library at 661/267-5600 or TDD 267-5167, or visit www.cityofpalmdale.org/library.
