“Playhouse Theatre Experience” Begins This Summer at Palmdale Playhouse

PALMDALE – The Palmdale Playhouse is accepting registration for its Theatre Experience to be held this summer for teens ages 13 to 17.

“Playhouse Theatre Experience” will expose students to live theatre through hands-on experience in acting, scene painting and props. Class dates are July 7 to July 25, Monday through Friday from 8 am to 1 pm. The cost for the program is $225 for Palmdale residents and $250 for non-residents. Class size is limited to 20 students.

The students will produce “Fractured: A Fairy Tale Parody” by Eddie McPherson.” Performance dates are Friday, July 25 at 6 pm and Saturday, July 26 at 2 pm and 6 pm. Students will also design and paint donated wood chairs in fairy tale themes. The chairs will be auctioned during the performance as a creative fundraiser to support the program.

“Discover the practical aspects of acting and learn how to think creatively when it comes to interpreting stories and portraying characters,” said Palmdale Recreation and Culture Supervisor Annie Pagliaro. “No theatre experience is necessary. This fun and intense 3-week program immerses students into the production of a full length play.”
