Keller Williams' Color Run This Saturday

PALMDALE – Keller Williams Realty is hosting a 5K Color Fun Run this Saturday, May 30, from 8 to 10 a.m. in the neighborhood across from the Antelope Valley Mall. Net proceeds will benefit the South Antelope Valley Emergency Services (SAVES), Westside School District's W.A.V.E program and KW Cares.

The event begins in the Keller Williams parking lot. Participants may register online at www.kwavcolorfunrun.com, or at the Keller Williams office, 1401 Rancho Vista Blvd. on Friday, May 20 from 12 noon to 7 pm. General registration is $30.

This year will mark the fifth year in a row that Keller Williams Realty agents across North America will partner with families, friends and business partners to make a significant positive impact in their respective communities.

"We are looking forward to having some colorful fun with the local community that provides us with our livelihood each year," said Rob Talbot CEO and team leader for the Keller Williams Antelope Valley office. "Red Day is our chance to give back and help support these wonderful organizations that do so much for our community."

For more information on Red Day 2015 and the Color Fun Run contact the Keller Williams office at (661) 538-2800.
