City of Palmdale's Children's Springfest Coming March 19

PALMDALE – The popular Children's Springfest & Egg Hunt will be held on Saturday, March 19 from 10 am to 2 pm at the Palmdale Amphitheater. It is free and open to kids ages 2 through 12.

A free egg hunt, crafts and activities will all be part of the fun. A Kids Fun Zone wristband will be available for $2. It will include pony rides, petting zoo, Euro bungee, racetrack derby, extreme obstacle course, soccer shootout, basketball shootout and football speed throw.

The Easter Bunny will be on hand to greet the children. "Bunny and Me" photos will be available for $2.

Children ages 5 and under may be accompanied by one adult inside the egg hunt, limit 5 eggs per child. Pets are not permitted. Food vendors will be onsite for your convenience. Dress code enforced, no clothing displaying profanity or obscene graphics allowed, shoes and shirt required.

The Children's Spring Fest and Egg Hunt is made possible through the generous sponsorship of McKinley Children's Center, Sierra Medical Group and Home Depot at 47th St. E. in Palmdale.

About the Palmdale Amphitheater

The Palmdale Amphitheater, or "The Amp," is located at 2723 Rancho Vista Blvd., and is the Antelope Valley's premier outdoor entertainment venue, providing audiences with a blend of high energy concert performances and community-based programming. Its convenient location, great sight lines and comfortable, grassy seating areas are complemented by Saturday evening concerts and Friday evening Family Movie Nights presented during summer months. It has been the venue for Gracefest, GCom Wounded Warrior Concert, Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall for the AV, Easter services, high school graduations and reunions, and numerous other activities.
