Free Summer Fun Programs Begin June 6 at Palmdale's Neighborhood Houses

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale will host fun and creative free summer programs for youth at its Yucca, Tumbleweed, Manzanita and Hammack Neighborhood Houses beginning Monday, June 6.

“Summer Fun at the Neighborhood Houses” is designed for three to five year olds and will run Monday through Friday from 10 to 11:30 am. Children will build social skills and independence while being introduced to the alphabet, numbers and colors. Children should be fully potty-trained and accustomed to parental separation.

“Summer Tots at the Neighborhood Houses” is designed for kids in Kindergarten through 6th grade and will be held Monday through Friday from 2:30 to 4:30 pm. The programs will provide a structured environment with opportunities to participate in group and individual activities. Organized activities such as sports, games, unique crafts, and academic projects as well as special projects and workshops will offer opportunities to experience summer with friends and fun things to do.

Sign up required as space is limited.
