Palmdale City Library's Summer Reading Program Begins Monday June 8

PALMDALE – The Palmdale City Library's free Summer Reading Program will kick off on Monday, June 8 at the Library, located at 700 E. Palmdale Blvd.

"This year's theme is 'Read to the Rhythm' and we'll be having a lot of fun over the summer to encourage kids to keep up their reading skills," said Library Director Thomas Vose. "We'll kick things off with a party on Monday June 8 at 1 pm with facepainting, balloon storytelling and more!"

Sign up will begin at 10 am at the Reference Desk in the Library, and the program starts at 1 pm. The Summer Reading Program is free and open to all kids up to age 12.

In addition, the Palmdale City Library will hold a Teen Summer Reading Program and a brand new Adult Summer Reading program, in which teens and adults can earn tickets for a chance to win awesome raffle prizes, including a tablet computer, just by reading.

The programs will be held through Aug. 8.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Palmdale City Library.

The Palmdale City Library is open seven days a week. Hours of operation are Monday through Thursday from 10 am to 8 pm; Friday and Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm; and Sunday from 1 to 5 pm.

For more information, please call the Palmdale City Library at 661/267-5600 or TDD 267-5167, or visit www.cityofpalmdale.org/library.
