TED Talks Coming to Palmdale City Library on Feb. 2

PALMDALE – The Palmdale City Library will present some of the best of the popular TED talks at the Library, 700 E. Palmdale Blvd, on Monday, Feb. 2 from 6 to 7:30 pm.

This free program is open to the public, and participants will be able to hear some of the greatest ideas of the world's top minds – ideas which can change the way people think about the world.

“We love to share ideas here at the Library, and TED talks represent some of the best ideas out there,” said Library Director Thomas Vose.

TED began in 1984 as a conference where Technology, Entertainment and Design (TED) converged, and today covers almost all topics — from science to business to global issues — in more than 100 languages. Meanwhile, independently run TED events help share ideas in communities around the world. TED is a nonprofit devoted to spreading ideas, usually in the form of short, powerful talks (18 minutes or less).

The Palmdale City Library is open seven days a week. Hours of operation are Monday through Thursday from 10 am to 8 pm; Friday and Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm; and Sunday from 1 to 5 pm.

For more information, please call the Palmdale City Library at 661/267-5600 or TDD 267-5167, or visit www.cityofpalmdale.org/library.
