Actors Sought for Roles in “This is How We Roll, Palmdale”

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale’s Neighborhood Services department is looking for actors of all ages to audition for upcoming episodes of “This is How We Roll, Palmdale with Ruth and Kery.”

“This is How We, Roll, Palmdale,’ is a new monthly show that provides valuable community and safety information in a fun and often humorous way,” said show co-host and Crime Prevention Officer Ruth Oschmann.

Each episode is about 8 to 10 minutes long and focuses on topics such as being a good neighbor, fighting graffiti, making a police report and how to avoid becoming the victim of a crime. The episodes are currently being aired on Channel 27 and the City’s YouTube channel “CityofPalmdale.”

“We are really excited about this show and want to get the community involved as volunteer actors in the different episodes,” said co-host and Crime Prevention Officer Kery German.

To apply to be an actor in an upcoming episode, complete the online application at www.cityofpalmdale.org/Residents/Neighborhood-Services/Actor-Application
