RIBBON CUTTING/GRAND OPENING CEREMONY

WHAT: Grand opening/ribbon cutting ceremony for Transplants Brewing Company in Palmdale.

WHEN: Saturday, January 23, 12 noon

WHERE: 40242 La Quinta Lane, #101, Palmdale (south of West Ave. O and east of 10th St. West.)

WHO: Palmdale Mayor Jim Ledford; Palmdale City Councilmembers and staff; owners Matthew Luker, Sarah Luker, Jim Kasara, Charles Cordovano; brewer Brian Youngblood; local craft beer enthusiasts.

BACKGROUND: Transplants Brewing Company, now open in Palmdale, CA focuses on hoppy west coast ales and creative specialties. We strive to brew inventive and flavorful creations and are always brainstorming new ideas and approaches for our beer. Just as Los Angeles attracts collects random people from all over the world (our team originally hails from Chicago, New York and Arkansas), our specialty beer recipes draw from diverse, worldly and ethnic influences which often blur the lines between culinary and brewing sensibilities. In both senses, Transplants Brewing Company truly is "Ales for the Unrooted."

Currently on tap:

Palmdale Poppies - Blond ale with real California poppies

Sum Nug - IPA

Cream Cycle - Pale ale with orange and vanilla

Cumber Some - Wheat ale with cucumbers

Filbert - Chocolate hazelnut brown

Black Bayou - Coffee chicory stout.

Additional selections will be available at the grand opening.
