“Double Indemnity” Hits the Silver Screen at the Palmdale Playhouse This Sunday
Legendary Film Noir Shown on the Big Screen

PALMDALE – The Palmdale Playhouse, located at 38334 10th St. East in Palmdale, will show the 1944 American crime drama film noir “Double Indemnity,” on Sunday, Feb. 21 in the next installment in its Winter Classic Movie Series.

Starring Fred MacMurray, Barbara Stanwyck and Edward G. Robinson, it tells the story of an insurance representative who is talked into participating in a murder/insurance fraud scheme that arouses an insurance investigator's suspicions.

Doors open at 1 pm and the movies begin at 2 pm. Arrive early and enjoy a complimentary dessert and beverage with paid admission. Tickets are $5 for general admission, $4 for students with current ID. A four pack of tickets with one general admission ticket per movie is available for $15

“‘Double Indemnity’ is one of those classic movies that is best experienced in a theater on the big screen,” said Palmdale Recreation Supervisor Annie Pagliaro. “Take a step back in time to the hey-day of Hollywood and enjoy this gem in the comfort of the Palmdale Playhouse and the enjoyment of seeing and hearing it on our state-of-the-art sound and projection system.”

Other movies in the series include the 1954 crime drama “On the Waterfront,” starring Marlon Brando, Karl Malden and Eva Marie Saint on Sunday, March 13; and the 1950 black comedy/drama “Sunset Boulevard,” starring William Holden and Gloria Swanson on Sunday, March 20.
