Elvis Is In the House as Palmdale Repertory Theatre Presents “All Shook Up”

PALMDALE – The Palmdale Repertory Theatre presents “All Shook Up,” featuring the songs of Elvis Presley at the Chimbole Cultural Center, 38350 Sierra Highway of Feb. 13, 14, 20 & 21 at 8 pm and Feb. 15 & 22 at 2 pm.

Produced by special arrangement with Theatrical Rights Worldwide, “All Shook Up” is an exuberant jukebox musical that shoehorns the songs of Elvis Presley into a narrative that’s part camp, part romantic farce. The loopy tale of mismatched lovers in a 1955 Midwest burg incorporates classics that range from sweet romantic ballads such as “Love Me Tender” to the rollicking “Devil in Disguise” and the hip-swiveling title song. Starting with a gender-bending plot device reminiscent of Shakespeare’s Twelfth Night, stir in a dash of Footloose, then seasoned with humorous flashes from sundry vintage shows such as The Music Man and Bye Bye Birdie. All Shook Up is a gem, driven by sidesplitting tongue-in-cheek humor, those evergreen chart-toppers, and a tinge of genuine heart.

Tickets are $20 for adults; $18 for students, senior and military; and $12 for ages 12 and under. Tickets are available at www.avprt.org or at the door.
