Last Chance to See “California Mission Series” Exhibit at Legacy Commons Artist Debra Schneider on Hand for Meet and Greet Tomorrow

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale’s Legacy Commons for Active Seniors art exhibit, “California Mission Series” by local artist Debra Schneider is in its final week of display.

The artwork, which depicts scenes from all of California’s missions, will be on display through this Friday, Feb. 27. Schneider, a volunteer painter instructor at Legacy Commons, will be on hand tomorrow, Wednesday, Feb. 25 for a meet and greet from 10 am to noon.

Schneider and her husband travelled to each Mission as inspiration for her collection of paintings.

“Stop by to see this beautiful, free exhibit, and meet the artist who created these works,” said Recreation Coordinator Jennifer Tallakson.

Many of Schneider’s students will have their works displayed in a presentation entitled “Legacy of Art,” on Thursday, March 5 from 5:30 to 7:30 pm.

Legacy Commons for Active Seniors, Palmdale’s newest award-winning recreation facility, was designed especially for active adults aged 55+. Amenities include an auditorium with stage, three classrooms, billiards room, TV/social nook, Wi-Fi and outdoor patio in over 14,000 square feet. Lawn games include bocce, croquet, fling golf and horseshoes. Visitors are invited to pick up a detailed schedule of activities. Legacy Commons is also available for event rentals.

Legacy Commons is located at 930 East Avenue Q-9, and is open Monday through Thursday, from 8 am to 4:30 pm and Friday’s from 8 am to 12 noon. For more information call Legacy Commons at 661/267-5904.
