“The Way Through the Woods” is
Palmdale Library Mystery Book Club Selection for September

PALMDALE – The Palmdale City Library’s Mystery Book Discussion Group “Mystery, Murder and Mayhem” will discuss the book The Way Through the Woods by Colin Dexter on Wednesday, Sept. 17, at 7 pm, at the Larry Chimbole Cultural Center, 38350 Sierra Highway.

Inspector Morse is enjoying a rare if unsatisfying holiday in Dorset when the first letter appears in “The Times.” A year before, a stunning Swedish student disappeared from Oxfordshire, leaving behind a rucksack with her identification. As the lady was dashy, young, and traveling alone, the Thames Valley Police suspected foul play. But without a body, and with precious few clues, the investigation ground to a halt. Now it seems that someone who can hold back no longer is composing clue-laden poetry that begins an enthusiastic correspondence among England’s news-reading public. Not one to be left behind, Morse writes a letter of his own---and follows a twisting path through the Wytham Woods that leads to a most shocking murder.

This book, part of the “Inspector Morse” series, takes place in England and is part of the grand tradition of British detective mysteries – fans of Agatha Christie are particularly encouraged to attend.

The Mystery, Murder and Mayhem Mystery Book Discussion Group meets the third Wednesday of the month at 7 pm, at the Larry Chimbole Cultural Center. The group is open to anyone who enjoys a good mystery. The discussion also provides disabled access with 72 hours’ notice. To request special aids for the disabled or for more information, please call the Palmdale City Library at 661/267-5600 or TDD 661/267-5167.
