Free “Security and Safety for Small Businesses” Presentation Coming This Tuesday
PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale’s neighborhood services department, in partnership with the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department, will hold a free security and safety presentation for business owners and employees this Tuesday, Feb. 23 at 8 am in the Palmdale City Council Chamber, located 38300 Sierra Highway, Suite B in Palmdale.

Topics that will be covered include how to address incidents of vandalism, panhandling and loitering, burglary and robbery prevention, how to identify counterfeit currency, credit cards and checks as well as an overview of the Business Watch program which is a free service offered to all businesses in the City of Palmdale.

“If you are unable to attend this event, presentations are available for businesses at a location and time that is convenient for them,” said Crime Prevention Officer Kery German. “Just give me a call at 661/267-5541 and we’ll arrange a presentation.”
