About The South Valley WorkSource Center

The South Valley WorkSource Center (SVWSC) brings job seekers and employers together in one place and offers no cost, vital workforce development programs and services to the community. Job seekers receive career counseling, access to workshops, skills training, computers, job tools and assistance securing interviews and employment opportunities. Businesses receive specialized recruitment and retention services. The center functions to reduce unemployment and positively impact the community through the power of work.

The no-cost services offered at the SVWSC are provided through the Federal Workforce Investment Act (WIA) and the City of Palmdale. The WIA provides the framework for a national workforce preparation and employment system. Programs authorized by WIA are provided at the local level to individuals in need of those services, including job seekers, dislocated workers, youth, incumbent workers, veterans, new entrants to the workforce, persons with disabilities and employers.

The City of Palmdale has contracted with Goodwill Southern California (GSC) as the operating agency for the South Valley WorkSource Center.

About Goodwill Southern California

Last year, Goodwill Southern California (GSC) served 107,802 individuals with disabilities and vocational disadvantages, including 7,140 businesses, and placed 9,596 people in new jobs through programs and services offered at four WorkSource Centers and 23 job service sites, including three multi-service campuses throughout Los Angeles (north of Rosecrans Ave.), Riverside and San Bernardino counties. GSC supports its mission of “Transforming lives through the Power of Work” through operations at 69 retail stores and 44 attended donation centers.
