Palmdale Playhouse Theatre Experience Presents “You Are NOT Alone,”
Two One-Act Plays That Deal With Teen Issues

PALMDALE – The Palmdale Theatre Experience students will present “You Are NOT Alone,” two one act plays entitled “The Losers’ Club” and “Divided We Fall,” on Friday, May 9 at 7:30 pm and Saturday, May 10 at 4 pm and 7:30 pm at the Playhouse, located at 38334 10th Street East in Palmdale.

Tickets are only $5 for adults and free for students accompanied by an adult. Students must present a valid student ID.

“You Are NOT Alone” takes a closer look at the problems high school students face. “The Losers’ Club” follows 12 “typical” bullied students who decide to put their tormentors on trial. Through their testimonies, the audience will learn the motives behind the bullying as well as how the bullied students overcome their fears and doubts. “Divided We Fall” is a monologue that is sure to strike the hearts of teens.

“I’m very excited about these shows, and if you have teenagers you need to see this show,” said director Jay Berckes. “Through beautifully staged vignettes, it reminds us no matter what we face, we are never alone. Come out and support the performing arts and enjoy an evening of excellent entertainment.”

Berckes is a middle school teacher with the Lancaster School District and has been teaching drama for over five years. He is the theatre arts instructor at the Palmdale Playhouse and also directs during the summer for Junior Theatre Camp and Summer Playhouse Theatre Experience. Most recently Berckes directed the Palmdale Playhouse's 2013 summer theatre camp production of "The Canterbury Tales."

Tickets may be purchased 24 hours a day on the Playhouse Web site at www.cityofpalmdale.org/playhouse. For information please call the Playhouse at 661/267-5684.
