October Parks Programming: It's FREE and INCLUSIVE!

SPOOKY SUNDAY:

Play spooky Musical Chairs and then wind down with some coloring activities!

MUMMY MONDAY:

Come out to the parks to make your very own mummy! Then perfect your mummy walk with us while we play limbo!

TRICK TUESDAY:

Join us for some tricky crafts to play on your friends. Come make some brown E's or some magic beans to spice up your Tricky Tuesday!

WEB WEDNESDAY:

Create a creepy crawler craft by making some spider webs with us! Then become tangled in a web with park staff during our game time!

TREAT THURSDAY:

Show us a treat in this trick-filled month by making kindness coupon books with our staff!

FRANKENSTEIN FRIDAY:

Be Dr. Frankenstein with us and create your very own Frankenstein Monster! Master your Frankenstein monster walk with us as we race along in our Egg Race!

SKELETON SATURDAY:

Enjoy the day making spooky skeletons with us out at the parks! Then join us in an apocalyptic Zombie Tag!

Join us in our special events, while supplies last:

Friday & Saturday, October 21st and 22nd, from 6:30 - 8:30 pm:

Haunted House:

Parks & Recreation partners with Public Safety to conjure a heart pounding, fun-filled experience as the Marie Kerr Park Community Building is transformed into a haunted house. Enter if you dare to encounter the scares for yourself, and bring a friend. Ages 13 and older.

All activities are FREE and INCLUSIVE to families and friends 5 years and older! Just let any of our staff members know of your needs, and we'll do our best to help.

You can also checkout free recreational equipment! We just require the individual checking out equipment to be 18 years or older, and exchange a valid ID or keys, as collateral.
